TUESDAY, May 23.

It was current gossip in the Stock Ex-change to-day that H. H. Rogers and his associates in the so-called "Stand-ard Oil crowd" have engaged James R.

Keene to manage their stock-market interests and checkmate Thomas W. Lawson. Mr. Keene has been practi-cally out of the market since his tilt with E. H. Harriman over Southern Pacific affairs about a year ago. He

There was vigorous buying of Amalsmated Copper shares soon after the opening of the stock market, and the price was foreed up about one point.
Believing that Mr. Rogers and his stock, half a dozen big operators who have been waiting for a chance to unload dumped their shares on the market. The support weakened and the price receded fractionally. Union Patific and United States Steel preferred received the best support of any of the active stocks. The room traders had a story that J. Pierpont Morgan had oabied to his partners not to allow the steel stocks to go any lower than they did yesterday.

There was considerable liquidation in United States Steel shares during the first hour, and subsequently commission houses bought both common and preferred freely on orders. Specialists in Steel were provided with semi-official figures showing that the net earnings of the United States Steel Company for the first six weeks of the current quarter were a little less than $15,000,000 The company's net earnings for the corresponding period hast year mounted to $18.59.755. The present quarter, therefore, will be about $10,000,000 ahead of last year.

A railroad president who usually has varge interests in the stock market talked as follows about the prospects:

"This weakness in stocks is only a natural reaction from the long swing upward. Prices were -00 high, and they are now getting down to their normal
